Y.O.U.T.T.H-Co-Ed Basketball Tournament

Y.O.U.T.T.H. Committee stands for Youth Outreach Uniting Tribes Through Health and consists of representatives from Habematolel Pomo of Upper Lake (HPUL), Big Valley Rancheria (BVR), Robinson Rancheria (RR), Lake County Tribal Health Consortium (LCTHC) and Lake County Office of Education (LCOE).

On November 26, 2019 we were honored to collaborate with LCTHC and host our annual Co-Ed Basketball Tournament during their annual Diabetes Walk event at Lower Lake High School. We rostered 45 native youth, not to include youth volunteers and spectators to this event.

Pictured left are 1st, 2nd and 3rd place teams in both the 3rd-5th and 6th-8th age brackets. All players receive a bracelet that read “Ball is Life and Your Life is Worth Living.” Second and third place teams receive medallions while 1st place teams received trophies and sweatshirts.

A shout out to HPUL Tribal Member Nya Marcks for being selected as All-Tourney for the 6-8th grade bracket nominated by coach Kristin Amparo and referee Jaime Boggs. Nya received a tribal designed basketball courtesy of LCTHC.

On behalf of the Y.O.U.T.T.H., HPUL would like to thank all the above mentioned committee members, LCTHC Diabetes Committee and volunteers (William Marcks, HPUL, Jaime Boggs, RR, Josh Ray, Scotts Valley (SV) and Miguel Gonzalez, SV for their dedication and commitment to our tribal youth.
